

Republic of the Philippines
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Quezon City, Metro Manila

13th CONGRESS

3rd Regular Session

(RESOLUTION OF BOTH HOUSES No. 02)

RESOLUTION OF BOTH HOUSES CALLING A CONVENTION TO PROPOSE AMENDMENTS TO, OR REVISION OF, THE CONSTITUTION OF THE PHILIPPINES.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Philippines in joint session assembled, by a vote of two-thirds of all the Members of each House voting separately:

SECTION 1. There is hereby called a convention to propose amendments to, or revision of, the Constitution of the Philippines, to be composed of two elective Delegates from each representative district who shall have the same qualifications as those required the of Members of the House of Representatives.

SECTION 2. The Delegates to the Convention shall be elected in an election to be held on the second Monday of May 2007, in accordance with the provisions of the Omnibus Election Code and other pertinent laws. The certificate of candidacy of a candidate for Delegate shall be filed in the same manner as that provided by the Omnibus Election Code and other pertinent laws with respect to candidates for the House of Representatives.

SECTION 3. The office of Delegate shall be honorary and shall be compatible with any other public office: Provided, That Delegates who do not receive any salary from the government shall be entitled to a per diem of 1,000 pesos for every day of attendance in the Convention or in any of its committees: Provided, however, That every Delegate shall be entitled to necessary traveling expenses to and from his place of residence when attending sessions of the Convention or of its committees.

SECTION 4. The Convention shall meet in the Session Hall of the House of Representatives on the fourth Monday of July, 2007, at one o'clock in the afternoon. Unless the Convention provides otherwise, a majority of its members shall constitute a quorum to do business, but a smaller number may meet, adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members. The Convention shall be the sole judge of all contests relating to the election, returns, and qualifications of its members; and it may organize and adopt such rules as it may see fit.

SECTION 5. The laws relative to parliamentary immunity of the Members of Congress shall be applicable to the members of the Convention, and the protection of the sessions of the same and its committees against obstructions and disturbances and the penalties provided for the violation of said laws shall be applicable to the Convention and to its sessions and those of its committees.

SECTION 6. The Senate and the House of Representatives shall place at the disposal of the Convention such personnel, premises, and furniture thereof as can, in their judgment, be spared without detriment to the public service, without cost, refund or additional pay.

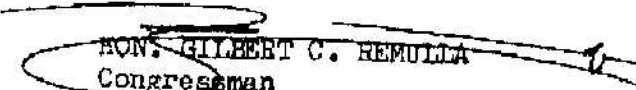

SECTION 7. The amendments to, or revision of, proposed by the Convention shall be valid and considered part of the Constitution when approved by a majority of the votes cast in an election at which they are submitted to the people for their ratification pursuant to Article XVII of the Constitution.
