

R2RKN Table 4: Summary of Information Requests and Agency Action

	MOST COMMON	REMARKS
STATED PURPOSE OF REQUEST TO ACCESS INFORMATION	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Research, academic • Transparency, public information • General Information, fact finding • Personal Use • Journalism • Clarification of employment status • Verification • Unstated / Unreported (esp. for DICT, DOE, DOF, DOH, DOJ and NEDA)
TYPES OF INFORMATION REQUESTED (GENERAL CATEGORIES)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Budget and spending of government agencies, LGUs; specific budget documents (SAROs, annual procurement plans) and bidding records; infrastructure projects • Special Funds: DAP, PDAF, Yolanda, BUB, CCT, IRA, SEF • Royalties paid to government • Research and economic data • Salaries of Cabinet officials, Senators, consultants • SALNs • Subsidies and Dividends of GOCCs • List of 4Ps beneficiary • Pag-ibig members update • Ranking of Schools by performance • Re/classification of LGU positions • ICT-related information: frequency spectrum audit report • Energy data: procurement, minerals production • MSME list, list of pharmacies • Health data: incidences of specific illnesses e.g. HIV, health indicators • Official issuances, Board Resolutions, Policies and Guidelines • Status of cases (e.g. Binay's corruption case, Ampatuan), investigations • Minutes of Meetings
REASONS GIVEN BY AGENCIES FOR DENIAL OF REQUESTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Agency doesn't have the information requested • Request referred to another agency • Requested information is already posted on the agency website
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Incomplete request information • No valid government-issued ID supplied • Request too bulky • Need to protect record from being fabricate • Information covered by exceptions. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Additional information asked for includes name of employer (for request for member's records) • Bulky request pertains to all SAROs issued in the last administration • According to the agency, if request will be approved, the documents will be posted online. • Exceptions invoked: information pertains to matters under litigation and executive privilege