Dear Commissioner Liboro:

The Presidential Communications Operations Office (PCOO), in coordination with the Office of the President (OP), the Office of the Executive Secretary (OES), the Office of the Cabinet Secretary (OCS) and the Presidential Management Staff (PMS) respectfully request for clarification on the disclosure of information in relation to Sworn Statement of Assets, Liabilities and Net Worth (SALN) of government officials.

Pursuant to Executive Order No. 2, s. 2016 or the Freedom of Information in the Executive Branch, all public officials are reminded to make their SALN's available for scrutiny, in accordance with existing laws, rules and regulations. However, we have received valid security concerns during our inter-agency meeting on the disclosure of information in the SALNs of government officials to the public. To balance the right to information of the citizenry and the right to security and privacy of government officials, we respectfully request for the following clarifications:

SALN Reference	Remarks/Recommendations
Home Address, Name of Spouse including Agency/Office, Office Address and Position; Name of minor children.	Disclosure of this information may expose the Official's family to violence and harassment, specially for officers in law enforcement.
Exact location of real properties, Transfer Certificate Title (TCT) No. and plate number of vehicles.	We propose to redact the exact address and the TCT No., and only disclose the barangay and city/municipality where the property is located including the type description, kind, assessed value, current fair market value, acquisition year, mode of acquisition and acquisition cost. Further, we propose to redact the plate
